Dear Friends

We are now well into the Easter Season, although the extremely variable weather patterns of this week, "hail, rain and shine", might well give us pause to wonder what has happened to Spring!

We are also nearly a week into the second stage of lockdown easing and our schools resume tomorrow. That in itself is a wonderfully encouraging sign – that things are moving forward. However, many of us may still be rather doubtful and nervous about what comes next, rather as the disciples were after two of them told the others of their encounter with the Risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus. He appears to them again and greets them "Peace be with you". That peace is for us too – not just a peace that comes from a lack of worry or anxiety, but a grounded and justifiable peace – Jesus has conquered sin and death. With God on our side in this way, we can and should have a renewed confidence that all will be well. It requires us to give everything to God, to practice serenity and very importantly, as far as we can, to live in the present moment. This I think continues to be one of the most important lessons from recent times – and not only these. Many of the saints, such as Padre Pio and St Benedict, have encouraged their spiritual children to practice the art of both living in and giving thanks for, the present moment.

Recently I watched Joanna Lumley having an audience with the Dalai Lama. She asked him what one thing he thought was the most important virtue (she didn't use that particular word, but it was implied nonetheless). His answer was simple, one word in fact: "compassion". Time and again we see in the Gospels how Jesus has compassion with people. This of course is love in action and it is what we are called to do and to be. As we move forward over the coming weeks, we will encounter those who are doubtful, nervous and probably a bit anxious too. I think a friendly face and a listening ear will be of great practical support in these instances – "listening with the ear of the heart".

Compassion sometimes requires courage and St George, whose feast we celebrate on Friday, is an example of lived courage. We know little or anything about him, but tradition holds that he was a Roman soldier who lived during the 3rd and 4th Centuries AD. He was beheaded for his Christian beliefs during the persecution of Christians by the Emperor Diocletian in 303 AD. It seems that the Emperor Diocletian had St. George tortured to make him deny his faith in Christ. However, despite some of the most terrible torture even for that time, St George showed incredible courage and faith and was finally beheaded near Lydda in Palestine. His head was later taken to Rome where it was interred in the church dedicated to him.

We may not be called to endure quite what St George did, but we are called to a daily martyrdom to self – "yes to others, no to self". In that way we can show both compassion and courage to those we meet each day!

Let's pray for each other!

Father John Louis

REMINDER: Please remember to leave the Church promptly at the end of Mass. You should not mix outside church and you are encouraged to go straight home after Mass

THANK YOU

On behalf of the Parish Team, I wish to thank you for your generosity at Easter, your greeting cards and gifts to us. May God Bless you all.

I also thank all our stewards, cleaners, counters and all who help out in various ways in the Parish. Fr John

Bidding Prayers for the week:

God the Father sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through Him. We turn to Him for the fullness of life as we pray.

-For every member of the Church: that we may continue to encounter the risen Lord in deeply personal ways and courageously bear witness to his love by our lives.

- For those who find it hard to believe or who have been damaged by people of faith: that the words of hope and new life promised by the Gospel may become a reality in their lives.

-For all those who suffer for their faith in Christ: that as they stand with the Lord in his passion, so they may experience his presence today.

- For people who are sick and feel they are a burden, for all who are in hospital and residential care, for those suffering with Covid-19, and for all those who love and care for them.

-For all the faithful departed: that they may find rest for their souls and be led rejoicing through the gates of paradise.

God our Father, hear these prayers we make to you this day. Just as you raised your Son Jesus from the dead, so raise us also to imitate the pattern of his life and love, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONTACTLESS GIVING

We have recently joined a number of other parishes around the diocese to install a new contactless way of making donations and offertory at our parish. The devices can be found on the way out of church and is a quick and safe way to donate money to the church using contactless debit cards.

It's easy to use; just select how much you would like to donate and gently place your debit card on the card reader. It's secure and goes directly into the parish bank account. You can also make donations and contributions using standing orders.

If you have any questions regarding how it works, please contact Ade Marques on 07785758453.

PLANNED GIVING 2021-22

The 2021-22 Planned Giving Boxes are available for collection. If your box is not there, please fill in an order form or consider giving by Standing Order.

PRIEST TRAINING FUND

Next Sunday is Good Shepherd Sunday, the day we pray for priests and for vocations to the priesthood. The annual collection for the Priest Training Fund will take place next weekend. This fund pays for the priestly formation of men for the Catholic priesthood. There are currently 42 men studying at Allen Hall seminary, 18 of whom are for our own Diocese, and two men are studying in Rome, also for our Diocese. Last year two men who studied at Allen Hall and one who studied in Rome ordained to the priesthood to serve as our future priests. This fund also supports the ongoing enrichment and formation of our ordained priests. Your generous donation helps ensure we can support these men who are called to be like Christ the Good Shepherd. Donation leaflets are available in the back of the church. Please take one home, read the information, and bring it back next weekend with your donation. Please continue to pray for vocations and for our priests. You can donate online anytime at www.rcdow.org.uk/donations

ST RICHARD REYNOLDS has a number of teaching (Primary Teacher - September 2021) and support staff (Finance Manager Summer 2021) vacancies. Further details on the website or please contact recruitment@srrcc.org.uk for information
