Third Sunday of Lent
(Missal Page 154- YEAR B Vol. 1)

Exodus 20:1-17; Psalm 18; 1 Corinthians 1:22-25; John 2:13-25
Fourth Sunday of Lent (Missal Page 162): 2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23, Psalm 136;
Ephesians 2:4-10; John 3:14-21

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

"You need not fear the scourge that wreaks havoc at noon." Do you know these words from Psalm 90? Are there things that "wreak havoc" or cause turmoil, or bring chaos, in your life at noon, or at any other time? "You need not fear!" These words, assuring us of God's protection, have given strength and courage to many people as they faced the fears and terrors, that at times threatened to completely overwhelm their life. What is your experience? Have these words rescued you? And what precisely is the "scourge that wreaks havoc at noon?" What is this noon day devil? Whatever it might be, we know that when the devil attacks us he robs us of all spiritual peace. Prayer becomes dry and a slog. The Word of God is heavy. All religious exercises and duties just turn us off. We no longer feel any attraction to the things of God; doubts invade us; cynical thoughts multiply. And temptations, especially temptations of flesh, are given into with gusto! The devil attacks us when we are at our weakest and most tired, which for some of us is called Lent! When he attacks, do not panic. Keep calm. Do not get 'agitato!'

Why? Because, in front of our habitual fears and sins the Church comes to snatch us from the grip of the devil and leads us into God's embracing and healing love. Are you in need of healing love? The Church believes that all of us are. Therefore this weekend, as we consider two other of God's priceless gifts: the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Anointing of the Sick, let us think what it is that truly needs cleansing in our life. What it is that needs healing. Let us restore and deepen our relationship with God.

These sacraments can help those of us who feel that our sins are too terrible, or too embarrassing to name, or those who feel their sins are so repetitive. The Sacrament of Reconciliation can help those of us who find going to confession very difficult. They can help those who may have had a bad experience of confession in the past. "You need not fear!" We can put all these fears aside and together rejoice and experience God's healing love in the midst of our chaotic life. May God Bless you all!

Fr Fortunato.

LENTEN ALMS

While a growing number of parishes are now running projects designed to give practical help to the poor, the hungry, the homeless, the lonely and the vulnerable in our diocese, many more would like to get involved but need help to get started. To assist with this the Diocese of Westminster has set up Caritas – which supports parishes in three ways:

- Initiating new projects
- Providing "seed" funding to get projects started in parishes
- Building expertise and skills within parishes

Caritas is a charity and this work is only possible if it receives donations, which is why parishioners in every parish in our diocese are being asked to consider making a Lenten Alms contribution to Caritas this year. You can get more information about Caritas (and make an online donation) at www.rcdow.org.uk/caritas. A collection for Caritas will be taken up at the 8pm Mass on Holy Thursday.
