Fourth Sunday of Lent (Missal Page 164): 1 Samuel 16:1, 6-7, 10-13; Psalm 22;
Ephesians 5:8-14; John 9:1-41

Dear Friends,

We are already in the third week of Lent. And some of us have discovered that the Lenten discipline of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, has not been difficult. It has been impossible! Some of us feel weighed down by the daily grind, by our worries and anxieties, unable to cope. Some of us are tired, really tired, from long hours of work, or travelling, or from looking after the children and caring for the family. On the surface we keep up appearances. We look reasonably normal. We are not too disturbed. And we manage a smile, a joke and even a laugh. But for some of us, the reality is very different. And we know it.

Some of us looking at our moral, sexual, inner and private lives are uneasy. We do not like what we see. We feel guilt, condemnation, and deep shame. Some of us keep a lot hidden. We may have feelings of failure, dejection, or even quiet despair. If only things could be different. Better. If only!

In other words we are no different from the woman at the well. She is an outcaste and her love life has ensured this; the other women in the village think: 'she's already had five husbands, perhaps the next one will be mine'. Women like her are often objects of fun and scorn, but five broken relationships means five times her heart has been broken. She has longed for love, for someone who would permanently satisfy her and cherish her, but so far no luck.

Except when Jesus Christ arrives and promises to transform her life, which has become like stagnant water, into a spring of living water. And the Church brings to us this message of real hope and encouragement. Real hope. Not cheap, easy words. Today, Jesus Christ wants to dialogue with each one of us as he did with the Samaritan woman.

This Sunday however in a special way Jesus Christ will dialogue with the catechumens of our parish who will be moving on the second stage of their journey of initiation. The first phase of their journey of faith has been a time for them to hear the mystery of God proclaimed. They have consciously and freely sought the way of conversion and intention to change their lives and to enter into a relationship with God in Christ. We ask you please to pray for them as they continue their journey of faith and in the next three Sundays at the 9am Mass we, as a parish, will journey with them as they discover what it means to follow Christ as a Roman Catholic.

Take courage, the Church says. Do not be afraid. God knows our fears and worries. He understands everything that troubles our heart or mind or conscience. He knows everything that angers us, shames us, or tempts us to despair. As we make the Lenten journey to the great night of Passover, there is help for all those who feel trapped in their sins, fears and sufferings. This help comes from the Word of God, proclaimed among us. That is why, more than anything else, we need to listen to this Word. Really listen. God's Word has POWER! Power to change the hearts and lives of those who welcome it: those who say: let this Word become flesh, MY flesh! May God Bless you.

Fr Fortunato.

OTHER

“24 HOURS FOR THE LORD”

Following the Holy Father's initiative, the Pontifical Council for the New Evangelization has circulated information to every Diocese concerning “24 Hours for the Lord”. This begins on Friday, 28 March at 1600 and will conclude at the same time on Saturday, 29 March. Every diocesan bishop has been asked to keep at least one church in his diocese open during this period in order to offer the Sacrament of Penance to those wishing to avail themselves of it, preferably within the context of Eucharistic Adoration. Cardinal Vincent has designated St Patrick's, 21 a Soho Square, W1D 4NR as the principal church in this diocese where the “24 Hours” will be observed. Everyone is welcome to attend St Patrick's to participate in this time of prayer and penance.

VOCATIONS DISCERNMENT GROUP FOR YOUNG ADULTS (18-40)

Friday 28 March, 7-9pm in the Hinsley Room next to Westminster Cathedral. Two recently ordained Jesuit deacons will be reflecting on Chapter 2 of Pope Francis' Evangelii Gaudium - Amid the Crisis of Communal Commitment. For more info, contact Fr Richard at richardnesbitt@rcdow.org.uk

FELTHAM CHORAL SOCIETY

There will be a recital of Mendelssohn's Elijah by the Feltham Choral Society on Saturday 29th March at 7.30pm at St Dunstan's Church, Feltham. Please see poster in porch for tickets, etc.

HEAVEN'S ROAD FM CATHOLIC RADIO

www.heavensroadfm.com is a new internet Radio broadcasting prayers, interviews and features to appeal to a Catholic audience. Also, they have over 200+ podcasts available and webcast up to 40 Masses daily. The Radio is run on a shoestring by unpaid volunteers, so any donation, however small, would be very welcome. Cheques should be made payable to Heavens Road fm Catholic Radio and sent to them at St John's Seminary, Womersley, Guildford, GU5 0QX. They also seek enthusiastic people to help make programmes, techies to operate the Radio and administrators to hold it all together. Much can be done over the internet – they have people in 10 different dioceses contributing. Further info at <http://www.heavensroadfm.com/vols/>
