A Reflection for Palm Sunday

Today, for Catholics and Christians around the world, we start the holiest week of the year, Palm Sunday. The week starts from Sunday to Saturday. The mood of the gathered assembly will eventually move from adulation and adoration to murder, mourning and mayhem. Moreover, before the week has ended, the thorns and nails of the Friday we call "Good "will replace the palm branches of Palm Sunday.

That first Palm Sunday must have been wonderfully exciting for the friends of Jesus.

For Jesus came riding into Jerusalem with all his friends waving palm branches and shouting their alleluias. It was a bit like a victorious football team driving around London in an open-air bus. With all their supporters waving their flags and shouting their equivalent of alleluia ("Manchester City" & "Liverpool"). I would have loved to have been part of the crowd on that day.

Unlike many people, Jesus wasn't interested in personal success. The adoration of the crowds didn't turn his head. Jesus was only interested in fulfilling God's purpose for his life. That purpose was to turn the hearts of men and women back to God, and help them discover God's love, God's forgiveness, and God's purpose for their lives.

As we celebrate Palm Sunday and begins our journey through Holy week. We are called to ask ourselves who and where we are in the crowd. This is a week to pray and then decide what kind of followers of Christ we are and are going to be.

During this Holy Week, let us reflect on how strong our faith is in Jesus when we see him suffering under the weight of the cross. Are we still willing to stand by him even when it seems impossible for him to get out of this situation, have we forgotten all the times we saw miracles happen and how God removed us from situations that could cause us harm? During this busy week of prayer, liturgies, and ceremonies, let us not lose sight of what we are remembering, celebrating, and taking part in.

As we begin this most holy of weeks, may Jesus be our constant companion. May we enter in the mystery of Jesus life, death and resurrection with faith and hope.

Have a blessed week.

Deacon Rolly
