NOVEMBER LISTS

Available at the back of Church, please fill in and place in the basket at the foot of the altar.

Following the meeting for Readers and Eucharistic Ministers last weekend, Fr John has asked Colin Macken to oversee the Ministry of Readers and Eucharistic Ministry in the parish.

A message from Colin Macken

I would like to thank all of our Readers and Eucharistic Ministers who attended last Saturday's meeting. Could any of you who were unable to attend please ensure that you have signed the forms that are in the sacristy so that the parish has up to date contact information.

We would like to introduce a formal rota as there have been some Masses recently where there have been too few ministers or someone has had to read without the benefit of preparing beforehand.

If there are any parishioners who would be interested in reading at Mass or becoming a Eucharistic Minister then could you please either send an email to the parish office or let either Fr John, myself, Bridget or one of the parish sisters know and I will get in touch with you.

We are aware that there are some parishioners who, for various reasons i.e. ill health, elderly, housebound, are unable to attend Mass. If you are one of those parishioners or you know of a parishioner who would benefit from having Holy Communion taken to them in their home, then could you please let the parish office know.

The Sick & Retired Priests' Fund helps cover the medical, housing, convalescence, and personal needs of these priests, as well as helping them in an emergency. They have been here for us; let us be there for them. Donation leaflets are available in the back of the church today. Please take one home, read about this important work, and bring it back next weekend with your donation. Please continue to pray for the wellbeing of all of our clergy - active, retired and ill.
