A Time for Healing

In today's Gospel Zacchaeus has an encounter with Jesus. Their eyes met and, in the meeting, Jesus invited Zacchaeus to make a new beginning. To be loved in one's goodness is no big deal. To be loved in one's badness – as Zacchaeus was – that's magic.

Zacchaeus was healed by Jesus, and this led to his conversion. All of us are in daily need of healing and conversion. Today can be our opportunity to meet Jesus. We all need to make the most of the Zacchaeus moments in our lives.

On Saturday 29th October we had the healing Mass with the Anointing of the Sick. It was a very special moment between Jesus and all who received the Sacrament of the sick. It was indeed very moving.

All our parishioners who are sick or housebound are very special and dear to our hearts. We are so fortunate to have Sr. Nora and Sr. Monica and our ministers of Holy Communion who visit them regularly.

Let us pray for all who are sick, especially:

THE SICK & RETIRED PRIESTS' FUND

The second collection next week will be for the sick and retired priests of our Diocese. Most priests offer their resignation at 75, but many continue to serve in our schools, hospitals, hospices and parishes. By supporting the Sick & Retired Priests' Fund, you can help cover essential costs and give them peace of mind that in the event of an emergency, their needs will be met. On the envelope is Fr Brian Reynolds a former parish priest in Feltham.

This is our chance to say thank you to our sick and retired priests who have given so much. You will find a donation envelope at the back of the church today. Please take one home, and bring it back next weekend with your donation. Please continue to pray for the wellbeing of all of our clergy: active, retired and ill. You can donate online at www.rcdow.org.uk/donations - the envelopes and posters feature a 'QR Code' that you can scan with a phone camera to give online.

REFLECTION

When you feel the assaults of passion and anger, then it is time to be silent as Jesus was silent in the midst of his ignominies and sufferings. Entrust yourself entirely to God. He is the Father, and a most loving Father at that, who would rather let heaven and earth collapse than abandon anyone who trusted in him.

St Paul of the Cross
