NEW BEGINNINGS

September is a time of new beginnings. Children are going into new schools and new classes. Our parish sacramental programmes will soon begin:

- 1st Holy Communion classes begins on Saturday 17th September 3.15pm
- Sunday School classes for children in non-Catholic schools who are in year 2 or above will begin on Sunday 25th September. Parents and children please come to the 9.30am Mass on 25th September. After Mass there will be a short meeting.
- Confirmation classes will begin later.

On Saturday the 10th we had a Baptism course for parents whose children will be baptised. A large number of children will be baptised in the coming weeks.

For Fr. David it is also a new beginning here at St. Lawrence. He has been very touched by your warm welcome. For Rolly too, it will be a new beginning as a Permanent Deacon in our parish.

It is a new beginning too for those in today's Gospel who found their lost sheep, their lost coin, their lost child. It is never too late for us to begin and start afresh, with new hearts we can know in an intimate way that we are loved by the Father and Jesus His Son, just as they love each other, we too can share in their life and happiness.

Thank you for your warmth and love, for your faith and devotion. Today let us open our hearts and minds anew to what the Gospel is telling us at this particular time of new beginnings.

FR. JOHN

THANK YOU FROM FR CHRIS VIPERS

"To my dear friends at St Lawrence's. I would like to say an enormous "thank you" for your welcome at the 5.00pm Mass last Saturday, and for the lovely party in the Parish Centre afterwards. Thanks too for your greetings, cards and gifts to mark my Silver Jubilee, my 25 years as a priest. St Lawrence's has been a big part of some of those years, and we have shared so much together. I love being a priest – it is a wonderful life – and it was beautiful that you could share my joy at that very special celebration. I am deeply grateful to Fr John for making it possible. Let's keep each other in our prayers. God bless you and your dear families, always." Fr Chris
